EAGLES' DEATH BENEFIT CUT.

Order Won't Pay When Members Are Killed in War. SPOKANE. Wash. July 5.—N. E. Nuzum, chairman of the committee of appeals for the Grand Order of Eagles.

announced to-day he decided that the lodge cannot be held to pay death bene-fits where deaths resulted from members of the organization going to war. Nuzum said Thomas J. Cogan of Cin-cinnati, chairman of the judiciary com-mittee, and William Brennan of Pittsburgh, chairman of the board of grand trustees, sustained his view. Thousands of members of the order in Canada have been killed in France and demands have been made that the organization pay the death benefits.
